STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Al Fresco Dining Tonight!

The cafeteria is closed TONIGHT for a special event from 5-9pm. Food will be sold from the side window during the dinner break. Extra tables have been set up outside the cafeteria for your al fresco ("in the cool air") dining experience.

No College Math Placement Test Tutoring with Sonny Wang This Week

This tutoring will resume next Friday (May 11th) during LE period for EPHS seniors planning to take the community college placement test this spring, summer or fall should attend.

Beware of the Oak Tree Caterpillars

Please do not approach or touch the Oak Tree caterpillars (worms). Skin contact with them may cause rash or other allergic reactions. The walkway between the main office and room 105 has been closed off. Also, be careful near the Childcare Office and playground. The “worm season” is almost over, so be patient and protect yourself and your children from harm.

NWEA Testing Continues for ALL students in Math and Reading

Please remember to attend the day your class is scheduled to take it so you do not have to make it up later!

Limited Hours of the EPHS Computer Lab Until May 11th

The Computer Lab (Room 300) will be open to students on Fridays only until May 11th due to NWEA Testing.

ESCUELA POPULAR STUDENTS ARE PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS - REMINDERS

Escuela Popular Students Behave Respectfully

The saying “Actions speak louder than words” is true when it comes to respect. You can show respect in many ways: by using good manners, giving off positive vibes with your body language (smiling, nodding), and obeying rules.

Escuela Popular Students Participate in Class

Talking in front of others is an important life skill. You will feel more confident if you are prepared. For example, while reading a novel that will be discussed in class the next day, you can jot down points you would like to make.
