SIREN will have Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) certified representatives to give free legal consultations to people with immigration issues/concerns. The focus for this year will be on applying for citizenship, checking for eligibility and if ready assistance in completing the citizenship application. They can also assist in determining eligibility and assistance in submitting:

1. Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)
2. Green card renewal
3. Family Petitions
4. U visa eligibility

Know Your Rights!

We are out of red "Know Your Rights" cards. More have been ordered and will be available in the front office next week.

Pedestrian Crossing at White Road and Gay Avenue

Be careful when crossing even with flashing lights – some drivers do not stop! Be safe; stay alert.

Career Day is Coming on Friday, March 3rd

Our Academic Counseors are planning a special "Career Day" program next Friday. A special bell schedule will be distributed soon. This is a wonderful opportunity for students to discover and learn about different career options.

Academic Success Depends on Good Attendance

Our Q2 attendance raffle resumes... today! Receive one ticket from your English/ESL teacher for perfect attendance Monday through Thursday. Receive a bonus ticket on Friday. Weekly prizes awarded on Fridays. (See classroom flyer for details.)

Hours of the Principal

Maestro EKS, our PM-CTC Academy Principal, is available to meet with students Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 7:15-8pm in his office. He is also available during the LE period on Friday. Check in with the receptionist at the main office.
