"You can be a thousand different women. It's your choice which one you want to be. It's about freedom and sovereignty. You celebrate who you are. You say, 'This is my kingdom.'"

--Salma Hayek, Actress and Activist

A MESSAGE FROM MAESTRO EKS, PM-CTC ACADEMY PRINCIPAL

Escuela Popular was founded on the idea that one woman could make a difference. March 8th is International Women's Day, a day to celebrate the social, economic, cultural and political, and workplace achievements of women around the world, including our own Maestra Lidia. Today, Escuela Popular recognizes the strength, determination, and power of ALL of our female EPHS staff and students to excel despite gender inequality, discrimination, and harassment. YOU ARE AMAZING! Escuela Popular also applauds men who are allies to our female staff and students and support them to overcome these challenges. The theme of International Women's Day 2018 is "Press for Progress." For more information on IWD 2018, see <http://tinyurl.com/y7xh5y2n>. "Empowering women isn't just the right thing to do—it's the smart thing to do."

EPHS STUDENTS PRACTICE SAFETY

California law requires schools to practice evacuations at least once a month. Please follow the directions of teachers, staff, and campus supervisors during an evacuation. If an evacuation takes place during dinner: 1) All students should head directly to the nearest evacuation area (either the quad or the area behind the library), 2) All teachers and staff should assist with the Childcare Academy evacuation.
